Steve SchachleWe want to save paper, dollars, and soulsby Father Terrance Klein*

This is our last, printed issue of The Spirit of Saint Joseph and Immaculate Conception. That's a bit sad, but we should also be profoundly grateful to those who labored so long to bring it to us. Yet I am also very happy to announce that the newsletter won't really be ending. It will simply be migrating onto our parish web page, where it will have its own home page. We believe that we can continue to produce the articles and the features, which you have always enjoyed and in a manner that saves a lot of paper and dollars.

We plan to work towards constantly renewing the web page with new material. To make this happen, we are in serious need of volunteers to submit features. You don't have to write every month, but it would be great if you could let us know that you would be willing to take on a project, such as our graduate exposés and our memorial pieces for those who have died, or features about new families entering our parishes.

There is a second new horizon for our parishes with the implementation of Flocknote, a system that allows us to text, email, and even telephone parishioners (who only have landlines). It's very cost efficient, especially when divided between our three parishes. So, for example, we will be able to send one message, telling everyone in a parish that Mass is cancelled because of the snow. We can let everyone know about a holiday Mass schedule.

We can tell those who attend weekday Mass if it is cancelled, or not, because of a funeral the same day. Or, leaders of individual groups can contact all of their members to remind them of the meeting coming up the next night.

However, the system is ultimately only as effective as the number of people who sign up for it. There is no cost to do so and no data that might be compromised. Essentially we want everyone who has his or her own cell phone and email to sign-up. That way, for example, the altar society might contact a wife, while the K of C can do the same with her husband. A mother or father might want to sign up for Altar Servers, so that they can remind their children that they are on to serve.

We will soon be asking everyone to sign up individually for Flocknote, but you can already do this either by texting the word "Barton" to this number: 84576 or by visiting the cluster Flocknote website: Flocknote.com/SJoelMConHFam Once you arrive at the Flocknote site, the first thing that you do is select your parish. Then look through the list of groups and add yourself to each one's list of members.

The Story of How the Fir Tree became the Christmas Tree

At the time when the Christ Child was born all the people, the animals, and the trees, and plants were very happy. The Child was born to bring peace and happiness to the whole world. People came daily to see the little One, and they always brought gifts with them.

There were three trees standing near the crypt which saw the people, and they wished that they, too, might give presents to the Christ Child. The Palm said: "I will choose my most beautiful leaf, and place it as a fan over the Child."

"And I," said the Olive, "will sprinkle sweet-smelling oil upon His head."

"What can I give to the Child?" asked the Fir, who stood near.

"You!" cried the others. "You have nothing to offer Him. Your needles would prick Him, and your tears are sticky."

So the poor little Fir tree was very unhappy, and it said: "Yes, you are right. I have nothing to offer the Christ Child."

Now, quite near the trees stood the Christmas Angel, who had heard all that the trees had said. The Angel was sorry for the Fir tree who was so lowly and without envy of the other trees. So, when it was dark, and the stars came out, he begged a few of the little stars to come down and rest upon the branches of the Fir tree. They did as the Christmas Angel asked, and the Fir tree shone suddenly with a beautiful light.

And, at that very moment, the Christ Child opened His eyes—for He had been asleep—and as the lovely light fell upon Him He smiled.

Every year people keep the dear Christmas Child's birthday by giving gifts to each other, and every year, in remembrance of His first birthday, the Christmas Angel places in every house a fir tree, also. Covered with starry candles it shines for the children as the stars shone for the Christ Child. The Fir tree was rewarded for its meekness, for to no other tree is it given to shine upon so many happy faces.

In Loving Memory

Those we love don't go away
They walk beside us everyday Unseen, unheard, but always near
Still loved, still missed and very dear

Susan Ann Weber

Susan Ann Weber, 66, died October 30, 2018, at Wesley Medical Center, Wichita.

She was born July 26, 1952, in Hoisington, Kansas, the daughter of Joseph and Martina (Younger) Luebbers. Susan graduated in 1970 from Claflin High School and then in 1974 she received her Bachelors of Education degree from Kansas State University.

On August 6, 1977, she married her high school sweetheart Roy Weber in Claflin, Kansas.

A lifetime resident of Barton County, Susan was a school teacher in Ellinwood, Claflin, and Bushton, teaching 28 years at all levels but mostly 3rd Grade, retiring in 2014. She was also the co-owner of Weber Four Oil Company.

Susan was an active member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church and Altar Society, and a former member of the KNEA and NEA.

She is survived by her husband of 41 years, Roy Weber; son, Christopher John Weber and wife Anne of Wichita; daughter, Tracey McKenna and husband Brett of Claflin; brothers, Mike Luebbers and wife Dawn of Ballwin, Missouri, and Bill Luebbers and wife Becky of Hoisington; five grandchildren, Owen and Matilda Weber, and Tate, Ellie, and Audrey McKenna.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Andy Luebbers, and an infant grandson, Thomas James McKenna.

Vigil and Rosary were held on Friday evening, November 2 and Mass of Christian Burial was at 10 a.m., Saturday, November, 3, 2018, all at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, celebrated by Father Terrance Klein. Burial followed at St. Catherine Catholic Cemetery, Dubuque.

During the homily of the funeral mass, Father Klein told how Susan knew just what she wanted in her life. She attended Kansas State University, became a teacher and married her high school sweetheart, Roy. Every year on their anniversary, he would add another rose to the bouquet he gave her, and they enjoyed fifty years together, including their courtship. And that love spilled over to her children and grandchildren through her truly selfless acts of love and kindness.

Susan's years as a teacher touched many lives, and most will always remember her fondness of the color purple and the K-State Wildcats. Students also remember her wearing crazy socks and sandals year round! Susan had quite a sense of humor and loved to make others laugh. She will be greatly missed by not only her family, but also her friends, former students and fellow teachers. We surely know that she will be spoiling sweet Thomas in heaven and serving as a fantastic guardian angel for the grandchildren left behind here on earth.

Memorials were designated to Dubuque Heritage Association or the Community Scholarship Inc. – Claflin in care of Nicholson-Ricke Funeral Home, PO Box 146, Hoisington, KS 67544.

Immaculate Conception Parish extends our deepest sympathy to the Weber family.

Away in a Manger

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down
where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep in the hay.
The cattle are lowing, the baby
awakes,

But little Lord Jesus no crying he makes.
I love Thee, Lord Jesus, look down
from the sky
And stay by my cradle 'til morning is nigh.
Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask Thee to stay

Close by me forever, and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
And take us to heaven, to live with Thee there.
